

Jesus Name, Fifth Generation

I am still little,
But my faith is so grand
Passed down to me through generations
Through sure and steady hands

From Calvary,
Through history
To my ancestors
And now, to me

I share in God's promise
Of salvation, peace and love
I inherit strength and glory
And the power of His Blood

I'll grow and live with miracles
I'll see His mighty hand
I'll find my life will be special
I'll belong to the ransomed band

With my mother, and hers,
And her mother, and so on...
A strong faith and truth I'll share
And my father's faith before me
With confidence I can wear

Jesus Name, Fifth Generation
A Truth, A Hope, A Peace
Jesus Name, Fifth Generation
This heritage is my strength
Jesus Name, Fifth Generation
I can walk in liberty
For by Jesus Name, Fifth Generation
I have strength surrounding me

My Grandma, and Grandpa,
Great Grandparents, and Great-Great Grandparents too
Fought and lived for this life
To pass this heritage down to you

So I set my heart and life toward heaven
With Faith and Conviction in Truth
Jesus Name, Fifth Generation
So all can be Jesus Name too

Jesus Name, Fifth Generation
A Truth, A Hope, A Peace
Jesus Name, Fifth Generation
This heritage is my strength.

For
Grace Victoria Antoinette Arneault
On the occasion of her Dedication to the Lord
December 7, 1997
By her father
Jonathan Craig Arneault